Area information

The Kent and Medway include an area of 1,516 square miles with a current population of around 1.82M. The four Kent & Medway coroner areas contain sections of the M2, M20 and M26 motorways as well as several major A-roads, main rail lines to and from London, the Channel Tunnel Rail link and Channel Tunnel, the ports of Dover, Ramsgate and Folkestone. There are 7 acute hospitals as well as several community hospitals, a large Mental Health Trust with inpatient and community facilities and 8 prisons.

The four Kent and Medway coroner areas received 6432 referrals in 2023 with 1256 inquests held, 11 with Juries. Standard post-mortem examinations are conducted locally at 4 Hospital Trusts by Trust and independent histopathologists. Forensic post-mortems are conducted locally. Other specialist post-mortem examinations including paediatric or digital are conducted out of county at specialist centres with 3369 post-mortem examinations being conducted in 2023.

Daily Operations and accommodation

The service is located in dedicated accommodation, including offices and four courts at Oakwood House in Maidstone.

There are 5 full time coroners for the Kent and Medway coroner areas, with 1 senior coroner and 4 area coroners.

The Coroners are supported by Local Authority employees, comprising investigation officers, staff dealing with administrative matters and a management team with a Local Authority Head of Service.

The Coroners service operates weekdays between 9-5pm.

3. JOB SUMMARY

The Role of the coroner:

- Coroners are independent judicial office holders. When made aware that a body or bodies of deceased persons lie within the coroner area, the coroner is responsible for conducting investigations and holding inquests when required (with or without a jury) into deaths to determine who the deceased was, when and where the deceased came by his or her death and how that death occurred. A referral is made to the coroner when there is reason to suspect that:
 - i. The deceased died a violent or unnatural death;
 - ii. The cause of death is unknown; or
 - iii. The deceased died while in custody or otherwise in state detention.
- Conducting investigations of this kind will include where appropriate directing pathologists and others to determine these answers. Coroners also have a duty to produce Prevention of Future Death reports should an investigation give rise to concerns about future deaths occurring from the circumstances that caused the death. Coroners also deal with claims for treasure when required in accordance with statutory regulations and guidance.

The overview of the role of an area coroner:

- The area coroner supports the Senior Coroner in providing a high-quality coroner service that puts the bereaved at the heart of the process. The area coroner deputises for the senior coroner when the senior coroner is absent and works with the senior coroner to ensure that the day to day running of the jurisdiction takes place to the highest standard. This includes preparing for any significant emergencies which may occur. Some out of hours work may be required where demand requires. The area coroner will assist the senior coroner in submitting annual returns to the Chief Coroner and Lord Chancellor as and when required.

Area coroner Role Responsibilities and Assessment criteria

Assimilating and clarifying information

As an area coroner you will be expected to be able to quickly assimilate information to identify essential issues, seeking clarification where necessary so a clear understanding of this information is gained. This will include possessing the ability to explain legal and medical terms to people from non-legal or non-medical backgrounds.

Working with others

An ability to work constructively with others whilst demonstrating an awareness of diversity and showing empathy and sensitivity in building relationships is required in this post. Area coroners must be able to constructively assist the senior coroner in leading members of the coronial team and interact well with bereaved families and external stakeholders (e.g. relatives, police officers, medical personnel, mortuary staff, Registrars, witnesses and the media). Where necessary they assist the senior coroner to engage with the local community, for example giving talks and seeking feedback and views.

Assessment criteria:

- 8. Must have knowledge of the extent to which cultural and religious requirements can be met within the constraints of coroner law and practice.
- 9. An ability to drive the service and be receptive to new ideas, reforms and diverse needs.
- 10. Treats people with respect, sensitivity and in a fair manner without discrimination; ensuring the requirements of those with differing needs are properly met.

Communicating effectively

Area coroners must be excellent communicators and have the ability to express themselves clearly and authoritatively when required. They must be sensitive and, as far as possible, responsive to the needs and requirements of those who engage with the coroner service and also possess the awareness to manage their expectations of the coroner process. Area coroners must be IT literate and able to provide clear directions to staff on coroner investigations whilst creating a safe, harmonious and effective working environment through co-operative working including supporting the senior coroner with holding team meetings.

Assessment Criteria:

- 11. Excellent verbal and written communication skills.
- 12. Establishes authority and inspires respect and confidence.
- 13. Remains calm and authoritative even when challenged.

Exercising judgement
